Ruth Blais

Having opened for such notable acts as Prism, Sheena Easton and the legendary Dr. Hook, Ruth Blais has established a performance résumé fitting of her unbridled voice and natural talent.

With 25 years teaching both privately and at two local colleges, Ruth has trained some of the top vocalists in and around Edmonton.

She is currently performing dance hits with “The Scoundrels” corporate group; in a tribute band as legendary Stevie Nicks; and singing jazz at some of Edmonton's premier hot spots.

Teaming up with the very witty and talented pianist Matt Day and television icon Tracie Gray, these three will keep things lively and entertaining as Keith Persaud and Chef Sunil work their culinary magic.
